Residential on 0.14 Acres

Vanderstucken & Gold, Fredericksburg, TX

Welcome to The Das Rosen House at 210 E. Travis Street, a fully remodeled designer bungalow located in Fredericksburg's coveted historical district. Originally built in the 1940s, this residence has been meticulously restored from the inside out, blending timeless Hill Country character with modern comfort and luxury.

This property captures the timeless charm of Fredericksburg with every detail. From the standing seam metal roof to new ducting, insulation, plumbing, and electrical systems, every update has been done with quality and care. Inside, curated designer furnishings, high end fixtures, and light filled interiors open to a private backyard oasis with a stone fireplace, outdoor dining area, and lounge space.

Just two blocks from Main Street and two blocks from the Marketplatz, The Das Rosen House offers one of the most desirable walkable locations in town. As a permitted B&B with a transferable short term rental license, it is being sold completely turnkey, including all furnishings, décor, and future bookings, allowing the next owner to step directly into a proven, income-producing property.

A rare opportunity to own a piece of Fredericksburg history where luxury, style, and location come together beautifully.

Built in 1935
